

to the Court on computer disk in Word or Word Perfect Format or alternatively by e-mail.

The pretrial brief shall contain the following:

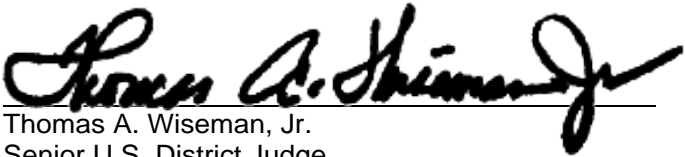

1. A concise statement of the facts;
2. A concise statement of the issues;
3. A statement of the propositions of law upon which counsel relies, together with citations of authorities in support thereof; and
4. Those evidentiary rulings counsel anticipates may arise and the legal authorities counsel relies upon in support of his or her contention.

Counsel shall attempt in good faith to stipulate the authenticity of trial exhibits. Objections as to authenticity shall be resolved at the pretrial conference. Objections as to admissibility and relevancy may be reserved until the time of trial or addressed by pretrial motions in limine.

Counsel shall stipulate any matters as to which there is no genuine issue or which counsel does not intend to contest. Any requested stipulations not agreed to shall be resolved at the pretrial conference. It shall be the responsibility of plaintiff's counsel to produce a written copy of all stipulations and to file same.

If an agreed pretrial order is submitted to the Court, the final pretrial conference will be stricken from the Court's calendar upon its receipt. However, should the parties submit an agreed pretrial order but still wish to appear to discuss any remaining issues such as jury selection, pending motions in limine, the authenticity of exhibits, or objections to requested stipulations, counsel shall be responsible for notifying the courtroom deputy NOT to strike the pretrial conference from the calendar.

It is so ORDERED.

Thomas A. Wiseman, Jr.
Senior U.S. District Judge